Kioko is Sure

Kioko showed Mrs. Miller her new bear. Then she said, “I wish that my little brother could have a new tricycle. He has wanted one for a long time.”

“I have a tricycle for your brother here at the church. Our children are too big for it now. Pastor Miller is in his office. Please, go tell Pastor Miller that I said you may have the tricycle.”

Kioko very happily went to Pastor Miller’s office. She said, “Mrs. Miller told me that my brother may have your tricycle.”

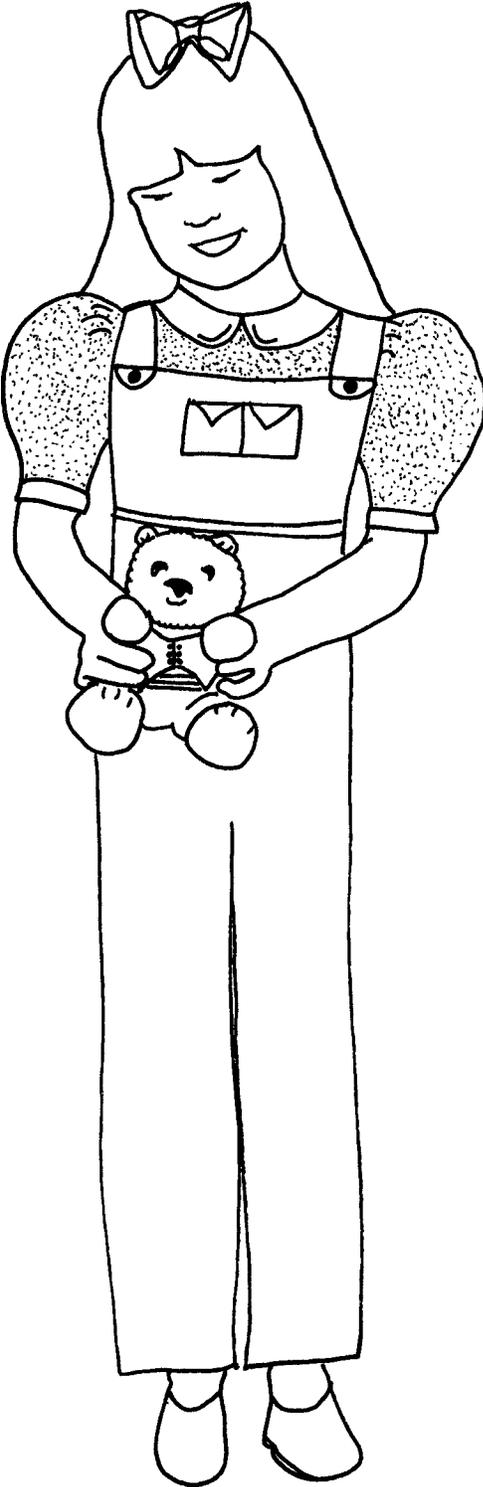

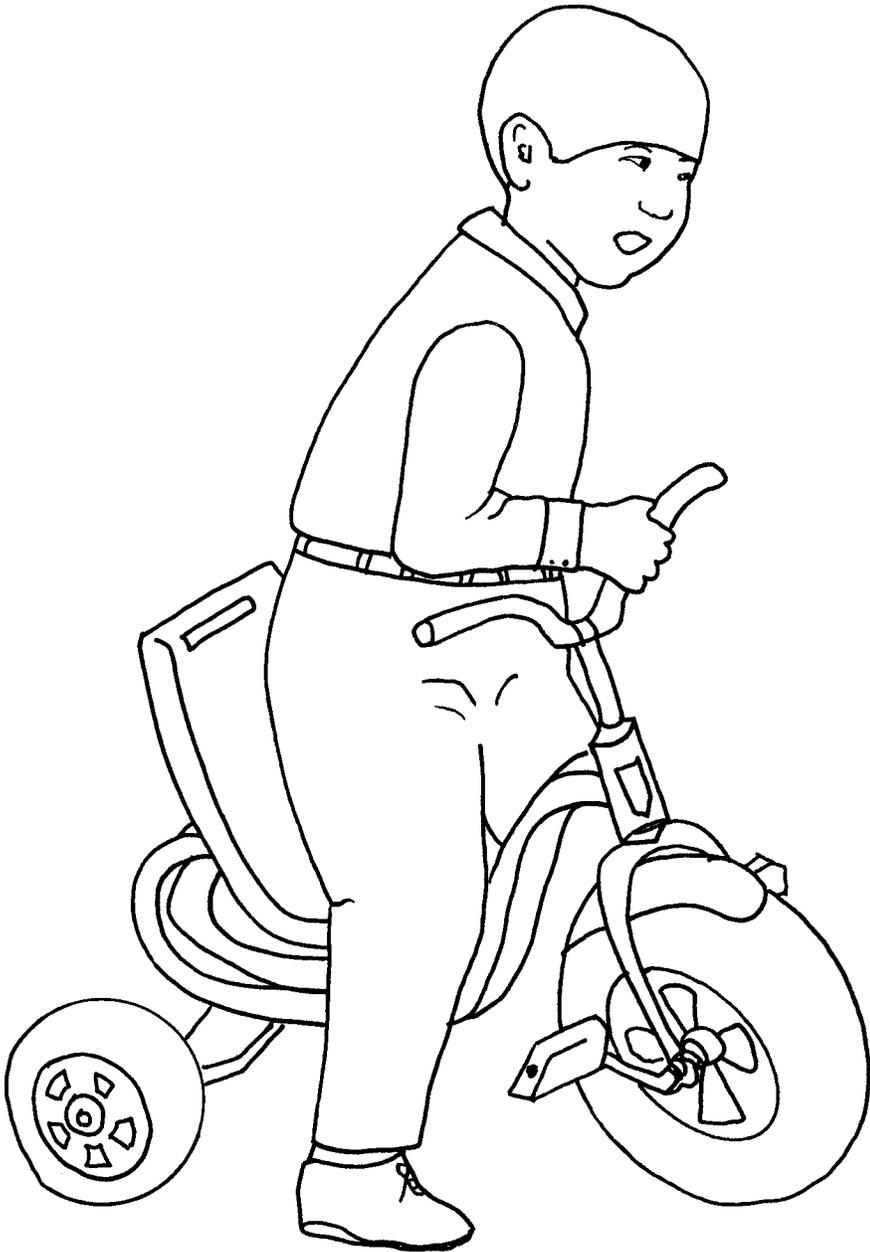

Pastor Miller said, “Are you sure, Kioko?”

Kioko stood up straight. “Yes, Pastor, I am very sure. Mrs. Miller said that he may have it.”

Pastor Miller smiled. He went and got the tricycle.

Kioko knew what Mrs. Miller told her. It gave her confidence to ask for the tricycle. You can be sure that God hears you when you ask for something in the name of Jesus.

Kioko had confidence to ask

What is Confidence?

Characters: Teacher
Pepper (or your favorite puppet)

TEACHER: I have confidence in the name of Jesus!

PEPPER: What is con-fi-dence?

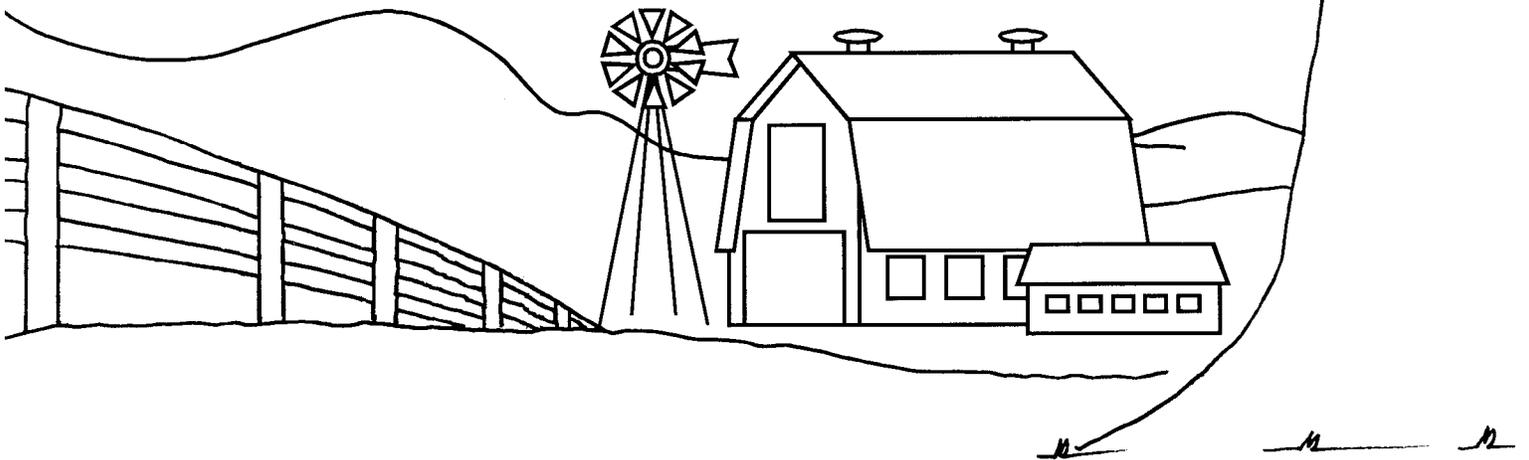

TEACHER: It means to be bold, or to be sure. I know that God stands behind the name of Jesus.

PEPPER: I am still little, can I have con- fi-dence?

TEACHER: Yes, you can have confidence in the name of Jesus, too.

If you ask anything in
My name, I will do it.
John 14:14

NKJV

One Glorious Day

A lame man was healed, Shake head yes.

One glorious day,

He jumped and leaped, Jump.

Yes, he acted this way!

In the name of Jesus, Point to heaven.

Peter did say,

Rise up and walk, Walk.

One glorious day!
